Burgers For Bachelors

Dish up this dinner when next the bachelors gather for a "night out." It's so easy to make with this Borden Kitchen recipe, one which includes Danish-flavor margarine, fancy button mushroom slices and ground beef—all sparked by the fine fresh flavor of a nondairy creamer.

Bachelor Burger Deluxe (Makes 5 to 6 servings)

2 pounds ground round beef	1 teaspoon salt
Salt and pepper to season	1/4 teaspoon black pepper
4 tablespoons margarine or butter	1-1/2 cups (one 4-oz. jar) Cremora coffee creamer
1 cup chopped onion	1/4 cup all-purpose flour
3/4 cup (one 4-oz. can) fancy sliced button mushrooms, drained	1-1/2 cups hot water

In a large-size mixing bowl, combine meat, salt and pepper. Shape into 18 (2-inch diameter) meat balls. In a large skillet, melt butter or margarine over medium heat. Add onions, mushrooms and meat balls. Cook until meat balls are brown on all sides. Add salt and pepper. Cover. Reduce heat and cook 10 minutes. In a medium-size bowl, or a pint measuring cup, combine coffee creamer and flour until well blended. Gradually stir in hot water. Blend with a wire whisk or rotary beater until mixture is smooth. Add flour mixture to meat balls. Bring mixture to a boil over medium heat; stir constantly, until mixture has thickened. Serve hot over whipped potatoes or biscuits.

We are told that no other food is as old as cheese. The earliest written record dates back to 4000 B. C. The first cheese factory in the United States was built over a century ago and was, in part, responsible for cheese manufacturing becoming such a large scale enterprise in this country.

BRIGHT FUTURE IN WALL STREET JOBS

By Robert Allen

Never before in history have the job opportunities in Wall Street been as great as they are today.

And Wall Street, as a generic term for this country's investment industry has come to be almost synonymous with Main Street or Broad Street or State Street. A young man or woman can have a career in finance in almost any city with a population of 25,000 or more.

An urgent present need is for registered representatives, the salespeople who accept orders from the firm's customers to buy or sell securities. They are specially trained to be knowledgeable about every type of investment and to offer information and advice as required by the individual investor.

All registered reps must pass rigid examinations given by the New York Stock Exchange and National Association of Securities Dealers. Starting salaries are now running between $7,000 and $10,000. There is almost no limit to the future earning capacity of a top-grade representative.

Why is the demand so great? Today there are 24,000,000 shareholders of publicly-owned U.S. corporations against only 6,500,000 in 1952. They are presently trading more than 10,000,000 shares a day on the New York Stock Exchange alone, vs. the typical 4,000,000 — share days of 1965. Best estimates are that by 1972 there will be 30,000,000 shareholders in the U.S.

To compete effectively with other industries for talented young people, many of the big Wall Street firms now go directly to the colleges with their recruitment programs.

"It's the quality of people that makes the difference in our business," says Bayard Dominick, board chairman of Dominick & Dominick, Incorporated, a 98-year-old investment banking firm that had the vision to begin recruiting at colleges in 1946. "We went to a few colleges right after the end of World War II. At that time, Wall Street, as a place to seek your career, was somewhat out of favor. Everyone wanted to get into aviation, or television, or electronics.

"But many of our key men today came to us in the early years of our college program. They've seen the investment industry grow tremendously. It has been only in recent years in fact that we've caught up with the fabulous strides of the total U.S. economy."

At most major houses, a liberal arts degree is considered essential and a master's degree in business administration or finance vastly improves the candidate's chances. The ability to speak and write clearly is important. Facility with figures and statistics is useful, and you must be able to get along with people.

Two girls were, as usual, discussing men. Said one, "Men are all alike." The other gal, from the deep South, replied, "Men are all Ah like, too."

Pharmacy Career Urged for Women

Pharmacy is a growing career field for women in which they will find a rewarding future, according to the U. S. Department of Labor.

Employment opportunities for women in pharmacy are increasing in a variety of areas ranging from research to a combination of science and salesmanship, the department says in a new Women's Bureau leaflet, "Why Not Be a Pharmacist?"

Pharmacists have a wide choice of employers, including drugstores, hospitals, universities, private industry, and government.

"The opportunities for part-time work are good," the leaflet points out. "A career in pharmacy may be an excellent solution for the woman who doesn't wish to work full time while her children are young."

Town Meeting Member and 12 years as a Selectman has been of valuable assistance to me in the House of Representatives.

"During my public service, I have always attempted to serve all the people of my Town and District, keeping in mind their needs and wishes. I have always cast my vote in what I believe to be their best interest.

"I fully realize that I am being opposed by certain factions within my own party, because of personal reasons and their "rule or ruin policy," however I seek reelection based on my past record of service to all the people of Agawam and this district."

Bay State Gun Deadline Oct. 21

Boston

If you haven't a license as a gun owner in Massachusetts, you are still within the law.

The commonwealth's new firearms code does not go into effect for 90 days—on Oct. 21.

A spokesman for the Attorney General's office said licensing of firearms owners will be carried out by local police departments using state-prepared forms.

Superintendent of Administration William A. Bradley of the Boston Police Department said the department had not yet established its procedure for handling the licensing and probably would not for at least a couple of weeks.

This is to give the legal department time to determine just what the department's responsibilities are under the new law and to prepare the licensing division for the volume of new paper work.

When the law becomes effective, all present owners of firearms will have to obtain identification cards entitling them to possess their guns. It also requires serial numbers on all new guns sold in the state and registration of their serial numbers with local licensing authorities.

The identification cards must be presented to dealers selling ammunition as evidence that the buyer is entitled to purchase cartridges.

Illegal possession of a firearm or making false statements on an application for a gun license is a felony under the new law.

The law is the result of a four-year effort by Sen. John J. Conte
(D) of Worcester to revise the state's gun code.

No Draft for Prisoners

Washington

The Pentagon says the possibility of drafting prisoners for military duty as was done in World War II was examined in 1966 and rejected.

Officials said the study concluded that judicial authorities, not the armed forces, should be responsible for rehabilitating criminals and that military service should not be used as a form of punishment for law offenders.

How To Cut Federal Spending

One logical way to cut excessive federal spending is to reduce the number of government personnel. In April, 12,352 employees were added to the federal executive department payroll, making a grand total of 2,932,109 people. This exceeds the Korean war peak in January of 1954. It's about three and one-half times as many on the federal payroll during the peak of World War I.

Here are some random examples. If the 19,448 employees of TVA moved to one city, it would have more people than Talladega, Ala., Fairbanks, Alaska, or Whitefish Bay, Wis.

If the Veterans Administration personnel of 172,954 was in one city, this city would replace Nashville, Tenn., as the 73rd largest city in U. S. population according to the 1960 Census.

If the Civil Service Commission with 5,362 employees had its own city it would outrank Monticello, Ark., Brownsburg, Ind., Freeport, Maine, and Walnut Heights, Cal.

The Department of Agriculture has the equivalent of one employee for every 28 farms in the United States, with a total of 111,271 employees.

Proliferation of federal departments, bureaus, and committees expands with unrestrained federal spending, so while Mr. and Mrs.
Consumer are expected to tighten up their budget to meet an increase in federal taxes, a realignment of the payroll priorities in the nation's capital is long overdue.

Expressway Driving Tips

Twelve tips for safe driving on the expressway are recommended by the safety and industrial hygiene section of the American Oil Company.

They recommend:

"Plan your trip. Make sure your car, tires, lights, windshield wipers and brakes are in good condition.

"Never stop on pavement. Don't tailgate. Use seat belts. Vary your speed. Signal your intentions to the driver behind. Never cross lane abruptly. When passing, start from a distance well behind the car in front of you so you have a clear view of the road ahead. Look behind you, check your rear-view mirror frequently. Don't drive when drowsy. Sensible speed is the key to safe expressway driving. When back in non-expressway traffic, slow down; watch out for pedestrians, traffic lights, and side-street traffic."

$57,614 Foreign-Aid Mistake

Washington

Someone misread the shipping instructions, and it cost the government $57,614. Foreign aid chief William S. Gaud says in testimony released by a House appropriations subcommittee a 150-ton shipment was supposed to go to Laos from Tokyo via Bangkok by sea. But the United States Army Depot in Japan sent it by air.

The 1968 AIC soccer team will have to play its final three contests away from the friendly confines of AIC Park.

Loyal Order Of Moose Agawam Lodge No. 1935

At the Board of Officers meeting held Tuesday, July 23, Gov. Bissonnette appointed Ernest Dumond as Treasurer, Robert Joubert as Outguard and Donald Curran as two (2) year trustee, filling the position left open by Louis Robert who moved up to Prelate. Due to other commitments, Robert Groux resigned his office of Prelate making it necessary to replace him with Louis Robert.

An enrollment meeting held Thursday, July 25, at the Westfield Lodge, Washington St., Westfield, brought Agawam Lodge three (3) new members. Welcome to the Lodge, Brothers Roy M. Sullivan, Daniel DiDonato and Paul D. Bissonnette. Attending from #1935 were Secretary and Mrs. Mitchell, Prelate and Mrs. Robert, Trustee and Mrs. Kane, Past Jr. Gov. Sam Smith, Innerguard and Mrs. Frank Smith and Gov. and Mrs. Wilfred H. Bissonnette. Everyone enjoyed the tasty, wonderful smorgasbord which included venison stew, kielbasa, cold cuts, salads, olives, pickles, desserts and coffee.

MOOSE NIGHT at Fenway Park had a fine representation from Agawam and Westfield Lodges. The bus left from Westfield carrying Past Jr. Gov. and Mrs. Smith, Secty. and Mrs. Mitchell, Prelate and Mrs. Robert, I.G. and Mrs. Smith, Jr. Gov. George Gebro and wife to the Yankees and Red Sox game on Wednesday, July 31. $1.00 from each person attending from the Lodges was donated to the "Jimmy Fund."

MOOSE LITTLE BITS

We have planned a "gala time" for Aug. 17 at St. Theresa's Hall for ALL members and THEIR guests. Please KEEP this night free for us . . . See you there? More on this later.

Happy to see Brother Bill Gavin's wife out of the hospital and doing so well. Secty. William Mitchell wants to know if all the brothers have received their first issue of the "MOOSE Magazine." If not, please call him at RE 9-4488.

Plastic Bottle For Soft Drinks

Toledo, Ohio

Demand for nonreturnable bottles has encouraged Owens-Illinois, Inc., to develop a new "glass composite package" — a lightweight, bulb-shaped container with a tumbler-like drinking lip.

The container is set in a colorful polyethylene base. It is being tested on bottlers, including soft-drink makers, this summer. Commercial production is not expected until 1973.

WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE

One wit claims that an angler's stature in the fishing world is measured by his mouth as well as his ability to fish.

In other words, if you're going to tell fish stories, you'd better talk like a fisherman.

To foster improved relations between novices and old hands, the folks at Mercury outboards have come up with a few suggestions that will get any beginner off to a good start.

Certain words always ruffle the feathers of the pro. Pole heads are the top of the list. Poles are something you would fly flags from or push a boat with. Except for the cane variety, which is an unmentionable in some quarters, poles have nothing to do with fishing. Substitute rod and you're safe.

Fish smash, strike, bust or hit a plug, but never bite it. Bites and nibbles immediately reflect the use of bait — never recommended when spinning a yarn.

Call your outboard rig her. It's the only other gal in the lives of men to which wives seldom object.

Use local fish names only. A speckled trout in Florida is considerably different than a spec in Ontario. A lake trout becomes a mackinaw in the west, and a togue in the northeast. And you'd better call bream "brim" or be denounced as a carpetbagger.

So choose your words with care, advise the lads at Mercury outboards. You may not be able to make other fishermen believe you, but at least you can hold their attention.

NEWS FOR VETS

Recipients of veterans' benefits should notify the Veterans Administration office which maintains their records as well as the Post Office Department of any change of address, William F. Connors, Manager of the Boston VA Regional Office said today.

About $1 million in undeliverable checks is returned to the VA each year, he pointed out.

This means that some 12,000 persons miss at least one payment of their monthly compensation, pension, or other VA benefit. In some instances, Connors said, failure to receive a monthly check from the VA undoubtedly creates a hardship for the family involved.

Connors said that veterans or their dependents in receipt of VA benefits should also include their zip code with their change of address notification to the VA office holding their records.

STORROWTON THEATRE

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — Frankie Laine, a magical name in the musical world, will headline his own show at Storrowton Theatre Aug. 5-10.

Laine has had one of the most entertaining and interesting careers in show business. Musical trends and singing styles come and go, but Laine's great singing style has continued to keep him among the leaders in the popularity ranks.

Right now Frankie Laine is selling records with the same rapidity and volume that he did 20 years ago, proving that his distinctive style can supersede all temporary fads. Just about 20 years ago Laine was a frequent headliner at the old State Theatre in Hartford, Conn., only about 25 miles from the Storrowton Theatre.

Recently Frankie Laine has hit the charts with back-to-back hit singles for ABC Records — "You Wanted Someone to Play With," "Making Memories," "I'll Take Care of Your Cares," "Laura," "What's He Got That I Ain't Got," and "To Each His Own."

During his fantastic career, he has received 14 Gold Records and has developed American classics like "Mule Train," "Black and Blue," "High Noon," and "Rawhide."

He was discovered in Hollywood by Hoagy Carmichael and in a matter of days recorded his first hit — "That's My Desire."

Bobby Ramsen, who recently scored a smashing success at New York's Copacabana, will capture the comedy spotlight in the Frankie Laine Show.

Ramsen, a product of the Bronx, has won comical fame with his satire, especially dealing with credit cards. "Everything today is credit," he says, "and I'm stuck with all that cash."

He has been traveling the comedy route for the past 14 years. Just a year ago he made his first appearance at the Copa and has been back frequently on popular demand.

Following his first appearance at the Copa, Ramsen found himself in demand. He appeared at Las Vegas and has made a tour of the leading supper clubs on the country.

He has shared billing with Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme and is currently on tour with Frankie Laine.

My Neighbors

"Sure, I was happy to serve on this committee but I'd no idea you'd expect work out of me."

Maple Syrup On Doughnuts

Yankee doughnuts get dunked in maple syrup.

RAISED DOUGHNUTS

- 2 cups milk, scalded
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 envelopes active dry yeast
- 1/3 cup warm water
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup shortening, melted and cooled
- 7 cups (about) sifted regular flour

Shortening for deep-fat frying. Into the scalded milk, off heat, stir the sugar and salt to dissolve; cool to lukewarm.

In a large mixing bowl dissolve the yeast in the warm water; stir in the lukewarm milk mixture, the egg and the melted 1/2 cup shortening. Gradually stir in enough of the flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out onto a well-floured board or prepared pastry cloth. Knead for five minutes. Place dough in a lightly greased bowl; turn to grease top. Cover with a clean towel. Let rise in a warm place until doubled — about one hour.

Turn out onto a lightly floured board or prepared pastry cloth. With prepared stockinet-covered rolling pin, roll out to 1-inch thickness. Cut out with a floured doughnut cutter (2 1/2 or 2 3/4 inches); reroll leavings of dough and cut out. Leave cutout "holes" as is. Cover and let rise in a warm place until doubled — about one hour.

Fry doughnuts and "holes" in deep hot (375 degrees F.) shortening, without crowding and turning once, until cooked through and brown — two to three minutes. Drain on brown paper of several thicknesses of paper toweling. Serve at once with plenty of maple syrup for dunking — the doughnuts need the maple syrup because they are not sweet.

Makes about 2 1/2 dozen doughnuts and 2 1/2 dozen "holes."

V.F.W. Post 1632 and Auxiliary Bulletin

By ANNA D. BISSENETTE

Commander Harpin and President Emily Dias are urging all men who are eligible to join the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #1632 and all their wives, mothers, daughters and sisters to join the Auxiliary. They said, "Members are needed if we are to continue all the work in store for us in 1969 and much work can be accomplished if everyone would pitch in and offer a few hours each week." Quartermaster Bissonnette is asking everyone to pay their dues early so that again we may make 100% membership in time to receive an award for our Post. Ladies dues may be paid to Treasurer Anna D. Bissonnette or at the Post Home.

Sincere sympathy to the families of Mrs. Elizabeth (McDonald) Waniewski of South Westfield St., Feeding Hills. She had served as a Wave during World War II and was a former charter member of our Auxiliary — AND the family of Michael A. Meade of Silver St., who had served in Vietnam and was awarded a Bronze Star Medal just three weeks ago.

HAPPY OCCASIONS
Happy Anniversary to the Donald Currans of Ottawa St., on Aug. 1. Don belongs to the Post and Betty is the Auxiliary's Junior Vice-President.

On Aug. 7—The Mahlon Inmans celebrate their third wedding anniversary.

Aug. 2—Happy Birthday, Tony Egnatowick.

Aug. 10—Happy Birthday to Kenny Cowles.

A LESSON?

The Lotus Blossoms are lovely... pink, waxy, as beautiful as any flower can be. They grow from the mud on the lake floor. THERE IS A LESSON TO BE LEARNED FROM THE LOTUS... Just as the perfect jewel of the lotus grows serene and pure from the MUCK and slime below, so can man attain perfection, NO MATTER HOW LOWLY HIS CONDITION. One can attain a beauty of the soul and spirit that would raise him to the nth power of perfection. DID YOU KNOW that the way to make a mountain out of a molehill is to keep adding dirt? BEWARE of those half-truths;

YOU may have gotten hold of the wrong half.

DID you know that LaBruyere said "Incivility is not a vice of soul, but the effect of several vices; of vanity, ignorance of duty; laziness, stupidity, distraction, contempt of others and jealousy."

On July 28, the Military Order of Cooties Pup Tent #9 and their Auxiliary held their picnic on the V.F.W. Grounds. All children under 10 were admitted free but the proceeds of this affair are used strictly for the hospital work that the Cooties do. Chairman Charlie Hill and co-chairman Tom Murphy wish to thank Ray Hutchings, Fran and Jean LeMagdaline, Ray Fagen-ski, Bertha Hill and Doty Mercure.

From the Auxiliary—Honorary Chairman Margaret Murphy, Chairman Sarah Gauthier, and co-chairman Viola Durcharme wish to thank Margaret Weeks, Gladys Schmidt, all the names mentioned above and Mimi Seiffarth.

Over 400 adults and children enjoyed hot dogs, hamburgs, all kinds of salads and refreshments. Everyone interested in the Hospital Program wandered in and out all day long.

Tom Murphy wishes to especially thank QM Bib Bissonnette and Commander Ed Harpin for helping them with all sorts of things.

Pup Tent and Auxiliary #9 picked up two new members on Sunday. Their next meeting in August will be held at the V.F.W. #1632 Post Home.

You've Got a What?

Cincinnati
"I've got an alligator in my pear tree," said James Dorn as he summoned police.

The desk sergeant's response is not recorded, but officers were dispatched. They saw something, gave chase, and finally apprehended the creature.

But this was a case of mistaken identity—just an innocent iguana—and "bond" was arranged by the Cincinnati Zoo.
